NAPLES, Dec. 27.

THE Eruption of Mount Veſuvius continues, and is likely to continue; as the opening from whence the Lava iſſues is very high up, and not above One Foot in Diameter. The River of liquid Fire runs down the Cone of the Mountain at a great Rate; not leſs than Five Miles in an Hour: But as this Stream is not more than 12 or 14 Feet wide at the broadeſt Parts, and ſpreads itſelf over former Lavas, as ſoon as it reaches the great Valley that lies between Veſuvius and the Mountain of Somma, it is not probable that it will reach the fertile and inhabited Parts, unleſs it ſhould increaſe greatly. The Mouth of the Volcano ſmokes much, but neither caſts up Stones, nor makes any Noiſe; ſo that one may walk upon the Banks of this extraordinary River with the greateſt Security. The various Caſcades and Arches, formed by the Scoriæ of the Lava, which run rapidly under them, make a moſt uncommon Appearance, and very beautiful, particularly in the Night.

LEGHORN, Jan. 2. Letters from Spain adviſe, that the King hath reſolved to remain ſole Maſter of the Navigation of the South Sea, and to prevent the Engliſh and other Nations from forming any Settlements there, as well as in the Streights of Magellan. If the Preſervation of the Peace, for the preſent, ſhould be founded on the Reſtitution of Falkland's Iſland to the Engliſh, an open War muſt ſoon be expected between Spain and Great Britain; ſince his Catholic Majeſty proteſts againſt any Claim of the Engliſh to thoſe Iſlands.

LONDON.

From the PUBLICK LEGER, of December 21.

GREAT Complaints have lately been made in a very high Aſſembly, relative to the Freedom of parliamentary Debate, which ſeveral noble Lords in the Minority inſiſt is deſtroyed, by the continual Demand which the Friends of Government make for The Queſtion: I ſend you here the Subſtance of a Speech delivered by Lord G——n on this very Subject, which appears to me no leſs candid than forcible, and I call upon your Impartiality to lay it before the Publick.

I am, Sir, your humble Servant,

THEODORE.

My Lords,

THE patriotic Concern which the Three noble Lords who laſt ſpoke, expreſs for the Loſs of parliamentary Freedom in Debate, is really whimſical enough, when the very Energy with which they deplore it, and the Abuſe which they conſequently throw upon Government, is the ſtrongeſt of all poſſible Proofs that it ſtill exiſts in the higheſt Latitude among us. If indeed they were denied a Liberty of expreſſing their Sentiments; and if they did not expreſs their Sentiments in Terms as groſs as they thought proper, then they might have ſome Foundation for their preſent Complaints. But if the Privilege of traducing the Firſt Characters in the Community, of villifying every Individual in power, and even of inſulting Majeſty itſelf, is not a ſufficient Freedom in Debate, I muſt beg they will tell us what Freedom of Debate really is, and I ſhall be among the Firſt to move for gratifying them directly to the utmoſt Extent of their Inclinations.

Poſſibly, however, the noble Lords will tell us, that Freedom of Debate is a Matter of no Conſequence, unleſs every Queſtion that comes before us is determined agreeable to their own Wiſhes. In this too, I ſhould be glad if they were obliged, but unluckily the Conſtitution of this Country, for which they are ſuch inflexible Advocates, in all parliamentary Debates, places the Power of deciding in the Hands of a Majority. Let them once obtain this Majority, and then they will have nothing more to aſk for. They will then have the Power of executing all their publick ſpirited Meaſures, though I do not think they will be able to enlarge their preſent Freedom of Debate; or if they deſpair of overcoming their Opponents in Numbers, let them only reconcile the Proceeding either to the Dictates of Reaſon, or the Principles of Law, and they ſhall have my Voice for immediately lodging the Right of Deciſion henceforward with a Minority.

The noble Lords have pathetically informed the Houſe, that though the American Buſineſs was particularly recommended to the parliamentary Attention, they are nevertheleſs precluded from delivering their Sentiments by the call for Adjournment. Yes why, pray, could not theſe Lordſhips as well deliver their Opinion upon the Motion before the Chair, as upon the call for Adjournment? It was more pertinent as well as more regular, and would have rendered all thoſe Complaints relative to the prohibited Freedom of Debate utterly unneceſſary. It would at leaſt have ſaved the Houſe from the Fatigue of hearing a great deal of very heavy Declamation, from the Toil of liſtening to Diſtreſſes without an Object, and tolerating Billingſgate without an End.

The noble Lords are pleaſed to be much offended that the American Diſpute was not brought before the Houſe earlier in the Seſſion, when by the general Senſe of the Houſe it is now brought before us, even more early than we wiſh. The Lords will however ſay, that it is only ſo in the Senſe of a venal and corrupt Majority; yet as that Majority has conſtantly prevailed during the whole Courſe of the Seſſion, it was of little Importance according to the very Creed of Patriotiſm to agitate the American Affairs a Moment ſooner. The Affairs of America I grant were recommended to our Attention from the Throne, and of very great Conſequence I readily acknowledge them to the Kingdom; but the Oppoſition employed ſo much Time in harraſſing Government, upon the Informalities of the Middleſex Election, that the Period for real Buſineſs became materially waſted, and now that their own Perverſeneſs has unneceſſarily trifled away the Seſſion to its Cloſe, they are very angry that there is not a ſufficient Interval for terminating one of the greateſt Objects that ever required the Conſideration of an Engliſh Parliament.

The noble Lords may probably reply, that Oppoſition has not trifled with the Seſſion, that the Middleſex Election was an Affair of the laſt Conſequence to the Britiſh Empire, and that they have now brought the American Buſineſs regularly before the Houſe. I will anſwer them on this Ground; they have brought the Buſineſs regularly before the Houſe, and we are determined for the preſent Seſſion to diſmiſs it regularly; we have as much Right to do the one, as they have to do the other; our Conduct is to the full as conſiſtent with Order as theirs can poſſibly be, and though they may Cenſure the Miniſter for Adjournment, I nevertheleſs inſiſt that it is perfectly agreeable to the ſtricteſt Practices of Parliament.

To be ſure the noble Lords will call us a corrupt, a venal Majority, and generouſly weep over the Ruins of their miſerable Country. Every ſenſible Man, however, knows that almoſt all Majorities are branded as corrupt, by the ignorant or the intereſted. Every ſenſible Man, moreover, knows that this Kingdom has been many Centuries on the Verge of Deſtruction, and that national Diſtreſs, or expiring Liberty, has been conſtantly a Subject of Declamation with the dirtieſt Faction. Yet, bleſſed be God, we have inceſſantly encreaſed both in our Property and our Freedom, notwithſtanding all the melancholy Predictions of Patriotiſm, and I truſt the ſame Remarks will be made in ſucceeding Ages, when the publick Spirited Worthies of the preſent Hour, are either conſigned to Oblivion, or hung up to the Ridicule of Poſterity.

Dec. 29. It is now generally believed that Junius is the joint Production of the Earl of Shelburne, Col. Barre, and Mr. Dunning.

Jan. 1. A Report is circulated at the Weſt-End of the Town, that the Earl of Hillſborough will be appointed Lord Lieutenant of Ireland, in the Room of Lord Viſcount Townſhend.

It is ſaid, that a Bill is preparing to be laid before an auguſt Aſſembly, to enable his Majeſty to appoint the Council for the Colony of Maſſachuſetts-Bay, in the ſame Manner as his Majeſty appoints the Privy-Council of Great-Britain and Ireland; the Right of chooſing the Council for the ſaid Colony is at preſent veſted in its Aſſembly.

Jan. 10. The Lord Lieutenant of Ireland, we hear, is to be created Marquis of Baynham, in Norfolk.

It is whiſpered that a certain Ambaſſador at the Court of Berlin has deſired to be recalled.

We are ſorry to inform the Publick, that the Aurora, on board of which the Supervisors embarked for India, is certainly loſt in the Streights of Sunda.

A Correſpondent obſerves, that the united Powers of England, Scotland, America, France and Spain, are at preſent in force againſt the Britiſh Miniſtry; and that if they ſtand this Oppoſition Six Weeks longer, they muſt be more than mortal.

Jan. 23. The following Letter was Yeſterday ſent to the Right Hon. the Lord Mayor.

"MY LORD, St. James's, Jan. 22, 1771.

"I take the earlieſt Opportunity of informing your "Lordſhip, that the Spaniſh Ambaſſador hath this "Day, at Two o'Clock, ſigned a Declaration relative "to the Expedition againſt Port Egmont, in Falkland "Iſlands, which his Majeſty hath been pleaſed to ac-"cept. I am, my Lord, your Lordſhip's moſt obe-"dient humble Servant,

Lord Mayor of London. ROCHFORD."

The Lord Mayor, immediately on receiving the above Letter, ſent Copies to the ſeveral Coffee-Houſes, and alſo ordered a Copy to be fixed up at the Royal Exchange.

Jan. 24. Yeſterday the Committee for giving a Bounty to Seamen met at Guildhall, the Lord Mayor in the Chair, who acquainted them with the Receipt of a Letter from Lord Rochford, relating to a Declaration on the Part of his Catholic Majeſty; publiſhed in Yeſterday's Papers.

On which it was reſolved to ſuſpend the Bounty to, and Entry of Seamen, until the further Order of the Committee.

A Letter was ſent to the Corporation of the Trinity Houſe, ſigned by Sir James Hodges, ſignifying their Suſpenſion of the Bounty for the preſent, in Conſequence of the ſaid Letter.

A Common Council holden on Tueſday, the 19th of Jan. 1771.

It is ordered that the Thanks of this Court be given to the Right Honourable the Lord Mayor, and ſuch of the Aldermen who have refuſed to back Preſt Warrants in the City of London, or have diſcharged preſſed Men.

A Common Council holden on Tueſday, the 22d of Jan. 1771.

(COPY.)

A Motion was made, and Queſtion put, that if any Perſon ſhall be impreſſed within this City or Liberties into his Majeſty's Service, by virtue of any Warrant granted or backed by any of his Majeſty's Juſtices of the Peace for this City, that this Court will immediately direct their Solicitor, at this City's Expence, to proſecute, in the Name of the Perſon ſo impreſſed (if he deſires it) not only the Juſtice of the Peace who granted or backed the ſaid Warrant, but the Conſtable or Peace Officer who executed the ſame; the ſame was declared to be carried in the Affirmative.

The Aldermen who divided for this Queſtion, were Stephenſon, Wilkes, and Oliver. The Aldermen who divided againſt it were Ladbroke, Nath. Alſop, Trecothick, and Turner. Mr. Alderman Townſhend was abſent.

Jan. 28. A Letter from Paris, dated Jan. 25, ſays, "The Diſpute between the King and the Parliament of Paris is at length terminated in the Baniſhment of every one of them; and the King has not only exiled them to different Places, but ſent the major Part of them to little Villages, ſcarcely to be called inhabited."

Lord Chatham, it is ſaid, has by ſome Means obtained an authentic Copy of every ſingle Paper that paſſed between Great Britain and Spain in a late Negociation, and intends, it is ſaid, to compare what he has to what may be delivered in as the whole of that Correſpondence by the Miniſtry, whence it is apprehended ſome important Diſcovery will be made.

If England ſhould always keep 30,000 Seamen in pay, perhaps we might not experience a War in 30 Years.

Jan. 28. About Three o'Clock on Friday Afternoon the Right Hon. Lord North laid before the Houſe of Commons, by his Majeſty's Command, the Two following Papers.

Tranſlation of the Declaration ſigned and delivered by Prince de Maſerano, Ambaſſador Extraordinary from his Catholick Majeſty, dated the 22d Day of January, 1771.

His Britannic Majeſty having complained of the Violence which was committed on the 10th of June, 1770, at the Iſland commonly called the Great Malouine, and by the Engliſh Falkland's Iſland, in obliging, by Force, the Commander and Subjects of his Britannic Majeſty to evacuate the Port by them called Egmont; a Step offenſive to the Honour of his Crown;—the Prince de Maſerano, Ambaſſador Extraordinary of his Catholic Majeſty, has received Orders to declare, and declares, that his Catholic Majeſty, conſidering the Deſire with which he is animated for Peace, and for the Maintenance of good Harmony with his Britannic Majeſty, and reflecting that this Event might interrupt it, has ſeen with Diſpleaſure this Expedition tending to diſturb it; and in the Perſuaſion in which he is of the Reciprocity of Sentiments of his Britannic Majeſty, and of it's being far from his Intention to authoriſe any Thing that might diſturb the good Underſtanding between the Two Courts; his Catholic Majeſty does diſavow the ſaid violent Enterpriſe;—and in Conſequence the Prince de Maſerano declares, that his Catholic Majeſty engages to give immediate Orders, that Things ſhall be reſtored in the Great Malouine, at the Port called Egmont, preciſely to the State in which they were before the 10th of June, 1770; for which Purpoſe his Catholic Majeſty will give Orders to One of his Officers to deliver up to the Officer authoriſed by his Britannic Majeſty, the Port and Fort called Egmont, with all the Artillery, Stores, and Effects of his Britannic Majeſty and his Subjects, which were at that Place the Day above-named, agreeable to the Inventory which has been made of them.

The Prince de Maſerano declares, at the ſame Time, in the Name of the King his Maſter, that the Engagement of his ſaid Catholic Majeſty, to reſtore to his Britannic Majeſty the Poſſeſſion of the Port and Fort called Egmont, cannot nor ought any wiſe to affect the Queſtion of the prior Right of Sovereignty of the Malouine Iſlands, otherwiſe called Falkland's Iſlands. In Witneſs whereof, I the underwritten Ambaſſador Extraordinary, have ſigned the preſent Declaration with my uſual Signature, and cauſed it to be ſealed with my Arms. London, the Twenty-ſecond Day of January, One Thouſand Seven Hundred and Seventy-one.

(L. S.) Signed,

Le Prince de Maſerano.

Translation of the Duke of Rockford's Acceptance, dated the 22d Day of Jan. 1771. of the Prince de Maserano's Declaration of the same Date.

His Catholic Majesty having authorised the Prince of Maserano, his Ambassador Extraordinary, to offer in his Majesty's Name, to the King of Great Britain, a Satisfaction for the Injury done to his Britannic Majesty, by dispossessing him of the Port and Port of Egmont; and the said Ambassador having this Day signed a Declaration, which he has just delivered to me, expressing therein, that his Catholic Majesty, being desirous to restore the good Harmony and Friendship which before subsisted between the Two Crowns, does disavow the Expedition against Port Egmont, in which Force has been used against his Britannic Majesty's Possessions, Commander and Subjects, and does also engage, that all Things shall be immediately restored to the precise Situation in which they stood before the 10th of June, 1770. And that his Catholic Majesty shall give Orders, in Consequence, to One of his Officers, to deliver up to the Officer, authorised by his Britannic Majesty, the Port and Fort of Port Egmont, as also, all his Britannic Majesty's Artillery, Stores and Effects, as well as those of his Subjects, according to the Inventory that has been made of them. And the said Ambassador having moreover engaged, in his Catholic Majesty's Name, that what is contained in the said Declaration shall be carried into Effect, by his said Catholic Majesty, and that Duplicates of his Catholic Majesty's Orders to his Officers shall be delivered into the Hands of One of his Britannic Majesty's principal Secretaries of State within Six Weeks. His said Britannic Majesty, in order to shew the same friendly Dispositions on his Part, has authorised me to declare, that he will look upon the said Declaration of Prince de Maserano, together with the full Performance of the said Engagement, on the Part of his Catholic Majesty, as a Satisfaction for the Injury done to the Crown of Great Britain. In Witness whereof, I, underwritten, one of his Britannic Majesty's principal Secretaries of State, have signed these Presents with my usual Signature, and caused them to be sealed with our Arms. London, the 22d Day of January, 1771.

(L. S.) Signed, ROCHFORD.

[As the Minister did not favour the House, neither in Writing nor by Speech, with the King of Spain's Instructions to his Ambassador in London, we shall here give what is authentically the Purport of them, though perhaps it may not be exactly the Tenor.

"The King of Spain condescends, out of his Regard for his loving Brother the King of France, to relinquish Falkland's Islands; but at the same Time protests against any Claim the English may set up to the Right."]

After the Clerk had read the Papers, Lord North said, when the Merits of the Spanish Declaration came under the Examination of the House, he would avow the Part he had taken in the Negociation.

Mr. Dowdeswell moved, that all the Papers, Letters, Instructions to our Ministry, &c. &c. &c. relative to the taking of Falkland's Island, and the Negociation with Spain upon the Subject, might all be laid before the House.

Lord North consented; only he desired the Papers might be moved for in Three distinct Motions, instead of being all included in One.

Mr. Dunning made an Objection as to the Idleness of the Distinction, between One Motion and Three, for the same Thing.

Mr. Dowdeswell agreed to Lord North's Request.

Mr. Dyson made a foolish Quibble about some Words in the Motion, conveying (as he pretended) a Meaning contrary to a Part in the King's Speech, at the Opening of the present Session.

Col. Barre shewed, that the Words objected to, were copied exactly from the King's Speech. He compared Mr. Dyson to a Snow-Ball, and was very severe against him. He then called the Spanish Declaration, scandalous and infamous, dishonourable to the Crown, and disgraceful to the Nation. He said, when the Merits of the Declaration came under Examination, he should speak fully to it; for he had much to say upon it. But at present he could not help observing, there was not a Man in England who did not condemn that Declaration. What Four Months arming! and Four Months negociating! and is this all!——The noble Lord (Lord North) said in this House before the Holidays, that Spain should pay a Part of the Expence we have been at, in making Preparations to resent the Insult. But there is not a Word of the Expence in the Declaration. The Enemy was not ignorant of the Weakness and cowardly Disposition of the Ministers. The Enemy know you dare not go to War (to Lord North) and therefore refuse to make us Satisfaction. There is not an honest Man in England who does not abhor the present Set of Ministers. There is not a petty Prince in Europe, who does not laugh at and despise them. Thus it is in the Power of any Individual to put us to an enormous Expence, and our Ministers dare not avenge the Affront. They dare not go to War, because they are afraid they shall lose their Places. Thus the Nation is exposed to Insults abroad; and is left a Prey to Jobbers, and Sharpers at home. A French Secretary, being in your Secrets, has made near Half a Million of Money by Gaming in your Funds. And some of the highest among yourselves (Lord Hertford, Lord Holland, &c. &c.) have been deeply concerned in the same scandalous Traffic. But a Day of reckoning will come. This Country cannot be in quiet, while every Thing that is dear and valuable to the People, is thus ravished from them.

Lord North denied, that he had ever said Spain should pay a Part of the Expence. He declared that he could not have said so, because he had never entertained the least Idea of making such a Demand.

Mr. Charles Fox said, he did not remember the noble Lord to have ever made use of any such Words.

Mr. Burke said, he remembered the Words. He condemned the Declaration in very severe Terms. He called it scandalous, infamous, and treacherous. He said, the Nation would demand the Blood of those who made it. Nothing else could—Nothing else would satisfy.—This Declaration, this Wisdom, this Spirit of the Ministry, this Vindication of the Honour of the Crown, this Security of the Rights of the Subject, which all lie, in a Nut-Shell, has cost the Nation above Two Millions of Money! The Land Tax was prematurely voted, or rather, the Country Gentlemen have been duped out of 500,000 l. The Trade of this Country has been greatly distressed and injured; 40,000 Seamen have been voted; an additional Army of 23,000 Men have been voted; and they must all be paid; a great Number of Ships have been put into Commission, at a great Expence to the Public; and all this for what? Why, to procure that scandalous, base, and dishonourable Declaration that lies upon the Table.

Jan. 29. A Levee was appointed to meet Yesterday Morning at the Queen's Palace, for the further Consideration of some important Matters relating to the Spanish Declaration.

Sir Fletcher Norton, it is said, has been prevailed on to sit in a certain Place, in his present Capacity, through the Remainder of the Sessions; but it is also said, that this Acquiescence has been obtained at a very high Rate.

Jan. 30. It may be depended on, that Mr. Bathurst was made Lord Chancellor through the immediate Appointment and Interest of the Princess Dowager of Wales.

Lord Mansfield, we are, however, assured, had the greatest Share in the the late Promotions in the Law.

Lord Mansfield, it is said, has declared he will quit a certain Assembly, if Sir Fletcher Norton be brought into it; which has greatly embarrassed the Ministry.

Feb. 1. It is asserted that the Debate on the Spanish Papers, relative to Falkland Islands, will not come on next Tuesday. The Influence of the Premier, it is now said, will occasion the Consideration of that Matter to be postponed sine Die.

An Express is sent down from the Admiralty to the Commissioner of his Majesty's Dock-yard at Plymouth, to keep all the Artificers still at work as briskly as possible, Sundays included.

It is asserted, that the present pacific Appearance of Affairs will not be of long Duration, and that the lately signed Declaration will bring on an Altercation, which must end in War.

A Correspondent says, no Measure of Administration was ever so generally condemned, as the new Convention with Spain. The Nation has been put to at least Three Millions Expence: The Landholder, the Merchant, the Stockholder, and the Tradesman, have each individually, and all collectively, suffered; and our Ministers have not obtained from the proud Spaniard One Farthing as a Recompence for this great Loss. Nor is there a Word about the Manilla Ransom; that too lies dormant, for fear it should occasion a War. From all that we have seen of the Conduct of our Ministers, this Observation will naturally be made by every Man, that they act with Pusillanimity towards the Enemy, and with Tyranny to their Fellow-Subjects.

An Article in the Dutch Mail arrived Yesterday, dated Madrid, Jan. 3, says, "Every Thing in this Kingdom denotes approaching War; and the continual Preparations for Hostilities confirm us more and more in that Idea."

Among the many People disgusted and disappointed by the strange Termination of the late Dispute with Spain, those who displayed so much Zeal for the Honour of their Country, by giving Bounty Money to Sailors, make a very principal Figure; and indeed it is very provoking, that they who drained their Purses so fast for the publick good, should find the whole turn out at last to be a Bubble.

We hear that Matters were at length carried so high between our Ministry and the Spanish Ambassador, that when the last Requisition was made to his Excellency, he was allowed no longer than 42 Hours to give his final Answer.

Yesterday there were full Houses of both Lords and Commons, and Lord Chatham spoke for a considerable Time in the Upper Assembly.

WHEN PEALE his lovely ARTIA drew,
Like Nature oft by Love impell'd,
Nature, to Love and Genius true,
Herself the glowing Pencil held.

Yes! plastic Nature could, alone,
Their warm and speaking Features give,
Or else the tasteful Pair genuine Son
To bid the breathing Canvas live.

The Rose and Lily's mingled Dye,
And every more essential Charm,
While may please the present Eye,
But can no lasting Beauty warm.

Give me, denuded worn from Life,
Each soft Emotion of the Mind;
Give me the Mother and the Wife,
As here in beauteous ARTIA join'd.

WHEREAS the Subscriber is informed, that a Bond passed from Notley Warren to Jane Hutchinson, for Fifty-one Pounds Eighteen Shillings and Sevenpence, and after the Decease of the said Notley Warren, his Wife, Sarah Warren, gave her Bond to John Warren, for the aforesaid Sum and Interest; and as the Subscriber has been informed, and really believes, that the said John Warren obtained the said Bond in a fraudulent Manner, forewarns all Persons from taking an Assignment of the said Bond.

Kent County, April 17, 1771.

WHEREAS a certain John Faulconer, did, in the Year 1770, make a Journey to Carolina, in Pursuit of Rights of Land, and other Atchievments, and on his Return, set forth, among other Things, that he had bought a Right to some Land in my Possession, of which he demanded a Delivery or a Consideration; and by shewing a Power of Attorney, persuading and threatening, obtained a Bond of me for that Purpose, and since, pretending he had other Advantages and Rights in my Possession and adjoining, has induced me to give him another Bond, dated the 29th Day of September 1770, the First of which I have been so unfortunate as to pay a Part; since which I have Reason to believe his Pretensions are notoriously false and deceitful; that his Views were fraudulent, wicked and unjust; that he studied to obtain Advantages by those Means; that he cannot, nor does not intend to comply with his Contracts given me; therefore, in Justice to myself, and to prevent his imposing on others, (as he has been offering to assign over my Bonds) I do hereby forwarn and request all Persons, that they do not take any Assignment on any Bonds or Obligation passed from me to him, of any Date or for any Sum whatsoever, as I do intend to dispute the Payment thereof.
